Study Questions:

- 1.) What does the Fourth Commandment, “Honor your Father and your mother,” teach us about government?
- 2.) Who was King in Jerusalem when Isaiah gave the wonder promises of the birth of our Savior in chapters 7 and 9? What does that tell us about living in a fallen world with corrupt government?
- 3.) What does Psalm 10:16; 29:10; and 110:1 teach us about God being King?
- 4.) How do the kings of the earth, in the way of the fallen world, react to the promised Son of David?
- 5.) How did King Herod react? (See Matt. 2:2-6; 16)
- 6.) How should we treat earthly rulers? (See 1 Pet. 2:13-17)
- 7.) What does the Small Catechism teach us about the role of the “church” and the “state” in the 3rd and 4th petitions of the Lord’s prayer?
- 8.) What symbol does Luther suggest should be on the shield of the prince?
