

The Holy Trinity in Creation- Part 3

www.redeemertheologicalacademy.org

Study Questions:

1. What is the difference between finding a proof text on the Trinity and a text that testifies to the Trinity?
2. How does Psalm 50:1-2 testify to the Trinity?
3. How does Jeremiah 33:2 testify to the Trinity?
4. How does Aaron's blessing testify to the Trinity (Num. 6:23-27)?
5. How does Isaiah 6 testify to the Trinity?
6. Why don't modern day Rabbis who teach modern day Judaism see such testimony as valid?
7. Why didn't the Rabbis in the days of Jesus reject His teaching?
8. What light does the Apostle John (a True Rabbi) shed on the subject in chapter twelve of his gospel?
9. What role does the Holy Spirit play in receiving the testimony of the scriptures about the Incarnation and the Trinity (see 2 Cor. 3:16-17; 4:3-4)?
10. How does the Father testify regarding the Son's role in creation (see Hebrews chapter 1)?

List of Guidelines for Gathering Scripture Passages that testify to the Holy Trinity

- i. When passages speak of God in the plural, we are taught about the plurality of persons*
- ii. When passages combine singular verbs with plural nouns, we are taught about the unity in the divine essence while maintaining the plurality in persons. Singular verbs with a plural noun show forth common action by more than one.*
- iii. When the name or title of God is repeated thrice, we are taught to confess three persons of the Holy Trinity*